

The Little Garden Club of Memphis
Membership Meeting
December 5, 2019
Elizabeth Williamson's home

Mary Call welcomed us to Elizabeth's home. She thanked Elizabeth for providing such a beautiful place for us to meet. Mary Call asked that we approve the minutes from the November membership meeting. Sally Treadwell moved and Mary Saxton seconded Sally's motion. The minutes were approved.

Mary Call asked that anyone who participated in the "Secret Planta" take their plant on the way home.

Ruthie Taylor, photography, asked that we check the February Ivy Vine for information on the photograph contest. The winner will submit a photograph to Zone IX Meeting. Vance Lewis asked that we come to a workshop with Nancy Keeley on January 28. It will begin at 9 am and is open to all of Zone IX.

Mary Call welcomed Linda Hill of Le Bonheur to our meeting. She explained the connection with Catherine Erb and the start of our support. Mary Call presented them with a check and plants from our club. Linda and Michelle thanked us for our support. Greg Campbell took our photograph with them outside Elizabeth's house.

Michelle Dunavant and Kate Connell reminded us that our payment for the Philadelphia trip is due today.

Jean Johnston and Sue Clark, Ways and Means, commented on the greenery this year. Jean is pleased with the quality of the greenery. It is at Sue's if you haven't picked it up. Make your check out to Jean.

Kate Trammell has aprons with our new logo today. They are $30 by cash, check or Venmo.

Kirk McClintock is working on a Facebook group for photographs Christian Tabor is assisting.

Tempe Thompson shared that we received a check from iGive for $42 and Kroger for $65. GCA scarves are available for purchase on the GCA website. Tempe thanked us for contributing to the GCA Second Century Campaign. She would love our club to have 100% participation. When you are looking for Christmas gifts, the GCA marketplace has some good gifts, pretty things.

Greg Campbell and Erick New provided a wonderful program with fabulous tips for Christmas arrangements, greenery and bow making techniques.

Respectfully submitted,

Katie Wiener, Recording Secretary
