

The Little Garden Club of Memphis
Membership Meeting
January 12, 2023

President, Emily Kay, welcomed everyone.

Emily asked for a motion to approve the December minutes. Connie Adams moved to approve the December minutes and Barbara Gassaway seconded the motion. Minutes were approved as submitted.

Stacey Hussey, Entertainment, spoke about the February 9th joint meeting with Memphis Garden Club that will be held at the Hunt and Polo Club. We will have drinks and “pick up” food instead of lunch. Our speaker is Margot Shaw from Birmingham. Her book will be available to purchase and for her to sign.

Mimsie Crump, Floral Design, reported that you will need to purchase a ticket to attend the joint meeting. Millstone Market and Nursery has agreed to supply the table arrangements and they will be for sale.

Bradley Fogelman, Horticulture, announced there will be The Milk Jug Challenge Pop Up at 10:00 on February 24th at Botanic Gardens. Seeds and milk jugs will be provided.

Ruthie Taylor and Sue Clark, Travel, gave information about two great trips they have planned. The first trip is April 20th to La Grange, TN. The plan will be to leave around 9:00am and arrive home at 4:00. The second trip will be September 11-15 to Chicago’s North Shore. We will be visiting the Gardens of the North Shore. Sue passed around sign-up sheets for those that are interested.

Emily announced that Janet Misner’s brother passed away recently. She reminded everyone if you are going to make a donation to Sarah’s Scholarship Fund to please make check to Botanic Garden and mail to Botanic Garden. Make sure you note that it is a donation to Sarah’s Scholarship Fund.

Jean Johnston, Programs, introduced our speaker, Tricia Hunt. Tricia is the owner of Millstone Market and Nursery. Tricia started her gardening career over 25 years ago. Tricia will share her knowledge of plants with us today and discuss the recent “flash freeze”.

Emily Kay, President, thanked our meeting hostesses: Dot Fisher, Bowie Campbell, Jeannie Tabor, and Kathy Adams. Emily also mentioned that our own Christy Muller made the food for lunch.

Emily adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Johnston
