

The Little Garden Club
Membership Meeting
Thursday, December 8
The home of Kim Lowrance

Emily Kay, President, called the meeting to order.

Emily asked for any corrections or additions to the November 2022 minutes. Lynne Fulton made a motion to approve the minutes as written. Connie Adams seconded the motion. The motion passed.

Ruthie Taylor, Travel, announced that we will have a field trip to LaGrange on April 20 to Nora Whitmer's home. More details will be announced in the coming months.

Emily thanked our meeting hostesses: Kim Lowrance, Alison Barton, Christian Owen, Anne Prince, and Elizabeth Williamson

Emily thanked Horticulture Chairs, Bradley Fogelman and Elizabeth Williamson, for the very successful and fun herbaceous cocktail party they held on December 1. The recipes can be found in the latest issue of Green Lines.

Emily reminded everyone that the Memphis Botanic Garden Holiday Wonders is currently on display and encouraged us all to go. LGC members get free admission with their MBG membership.

Jean Johnston, Programs, introduced our speaker, Kevin Coble. Kevin is the owner of Le Fleur flower shop and a member of the American Institute of Floral Designers. There was recently an article highlighting Kevin in River City Magazine, whose editor is our own Christian Owen. Kevin demonstrated how to design a variety of beautiful holiday arrangements for our homes.

At the conclusion of Kevin's demonstration, Emily Kay thanked Kevin for such a wonderful presentation.

Mary Call Ford presented Silver Bells to Kathy Adams, Corinne Adrian and Dot Fisher. Silver Bells are those who have been Little Garden Club members for 25 years or more. This is our way of recognizing and celebrating these loyal and dedicated members. Going forward, we will recognize our Silver Bells each year at the December Membership meeting.

There being no further business, Emily adjourned the meeting.

Respectfully submitted,

Garnett Hutton

